

JOB EVALUATION AND C&B STRUCTURING: A MASTERCLASS WITH COST-SAVING GURU ROHIT MANUCHA

How this HR leader saved costs by restructuring C&B and realigning job evaluation

Course takeaways for all delegates:

Complimentary 7-day Post-Course Trainer Consultation (total 4-hour duration worth over USD700)

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND

Rohit Manucha is not your regular total rewards and C&B expert. He is also a world-renowned HR leader with a proven track record of delivering rewards and organisational transformation initiatives that have saved millions of dollars for companies by building sustainable and scalable solutions effectively.

Throughout the course of his career, he worked extensively with CEOs and C-suite leaders to help drive end-to-end organisational transformation across nineteen countries such as China, Japan, Malaysia, India, Vietnam and the MEA region, covering organisations across a diverse range of sectors such as Walmart, Kraft, Bharti Group and Pepsi.

So if you want to review and restructure your organisation's C&B or rewards strategy and deliver world-class initiatives that will not cost your organisation the world, who best to learn it from but the international HR leader who has been there and done that?

Here's the number one tip from Rohit: do not underestimate the usefulness of job evaluation exercises in backing concrete C&B decisions and ensuring substantial cost savings for organisations. From his experience, there is much value to be gained in periodically reviewing job grades and C&B structures to ensure their competitiveness and relevance to the labour market, and their suitability for each individual organisation's manpower needs.

Join Rohit as he brings you through various case studies, interactive exercises and models to equip you with a full appreciation of the principles and practical application of Job Evaluation. Learn from his personal experiences as he guides you on keeping your organisation's C&B framework competitive, effective and equitable.

Not only that, cap off your studies over two days with an exclusive 4-hour Post-Course Trainer Consultation worth over USD700 that you can redeemed within 7-days from the end of your course! Maximise your business impact today!

COURSE OUTLINE – DAY 1

TIME	AGENDA
8.45am	Registration
9.00am	Introduction, Networking and Grouping 1. Objective: Overview of HR and Linkage to Total Rewards An important pre-requisite of Job Evaluation (JE) is to first decode the organisational strategy, align it to business objectives, articulate a business structure to help you execute the strategy and identify unique roles needed to achieve that. With that done, we will use JE to evaluate the relative importance of roles within the organisation and align the rewards plan to the pay philosophy of the organisation. This would entail: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding the importance of the Organisational Operating Model in sync with organisational strategy • Understanding the importance of articulating a clear and comprehensive rewards philosophy and discussing ways to align it to the organisational strategy • Discussing the genesis of JE and its use across the organisation. We will run through the JE methodology that we would subsequently deep dive into and understand more about other terms such as job levelling, job analysis and job family modelling • Deep diving into the uses of JE (organisational analysis, salary analysis, grading, talent management etc.) For any JE to be successful, the starting point is to have top management alignment and a level of understanding amongst all practitioners. Here we will understand the sequence of pre-requisites and flow-through aspects to ensure a successful execution and adaptation of JE within the organisation. But JE is not a fool-proof methodology, and is only as good as the people who use it. Hence we will also highlight the shortfalls of JE and how to prepare against them. Presentation: Leading organisation transformation (Honeycomb approach of linking all HR elements) Case study: PepsiCo
10.45am	Break
11.15am	2. Deep Diving into the Pre-Requisites: Structure and Job Profile Strategy/structure/designations/job descriptions across organisations can be different but at the core, the elements of knowledge, experience and impact of the role remain the same. Here we will understand how to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify unique roles • Break up the components of a job profile/job description that will help in evaluating a job Group Exercise: Decoding organisation structure and job profiles
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	3. Understanding the JE Chart The core-crucial aspect for any JE practitioner is to understand how to use the JE Chart. Here we will understand the dimensions of the JE chart and its various procedural aspects such as detailed vs. brief profiling, step differentials etc. Trainer-led Exercise: Chart-based JE session walk-through
3.00pm	Break
3.30pm	4. Understanding the JE Chart (Continued) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continuation of previous session and a recap of the key JE process steps Homework - Individual Exercise: Identification of unique roles and undertaking JE (Case Study). The mock case study is adapted from a real-life case situation. We will call this case study the "AFP case study".
5.00pm	End

COURSE OUTLINE – DAY 2

8.45am	Registration
9.00am	Recap of Material covered in Day 1 5. Hacks and Sore Thumbing JE at times seems to be overwhelming but in order to maximise your efficacy and at the same time ensure high reliability and validity of the JE score we will discuss the various hacks to doing JE with ease. Along with that we will understand how panel sore thumbing can be effectively undertaken. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hacks to an effective way of doing JE: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Ideal short profiles for key roles - Identify least likely evaluation combinations beforehand - Skimming and scanning JDs/role profiles to arrive at JE effectively - Using long profiles to evaluate organisation structure - Linking reference/JE points and step differentials to evaluate efficacy of a structure - Evaluating financial and non-financial aspects of accountability for a role • Checks to ensure the JE score is valid, reliable and consistent • Conducting Job Family and Cross-Functional Parity Analysis Group Exercise: Undertaking Sore Thumbing (Role Play)
10.45am	Break
11.15am	6. Linking of Job Evaluation to Total Rewards JE is the stepping stone towards building a world class rewards plan. Once a role has been evaluated within an organisation what follows is the grading and linkage with internal/external parity analysis for the remuneration (in line with the organisational pay philosophy). This entails: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Undertaking market percentile-based benchmarking and identifying compa-ratios • Evaluating the existing grading framework/C&B structure (gap analysis) • Developing the grading framework (linkage with C&B framework) and internal/external parity analysis • Deep dive in C&B structuring (Basic / allowances / fixed pay / variable pay / non cash etc.) Case study based on either Pepsi or Coca-Cola: Undertaking JE to arrive at an optimal organisation and effective rewards structure
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	7. Linking of Job Evaluation to Total Rewards (Continued) JE arrived at by the delegates will be discussed and assessed against the trainer's JE points for each of the unique roles. Delegates will subsequently be required to arrive at appropriate grading schedules for the organisation. Case Study (Homework Discussion): AFP case study – a leading MNC with subsidiaries operating across the MEA region
3.00pm	Break
3.30pm	8. Conclusion – Effectively Adapting JE within your Organisation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consolidation of learning for both Day 1 and 2 • Applying what you have learned and experienced back to your organisation • Developing action plans that will be monitored during the post-course trainer consultation session • Troubleshooting and Q&A
5.00pm	End
